

EUI Master Courses | Virtual Information Session and Q&A

Introducing the Master of Art in Transnational Governance Programme (MTnG) and the Master of Research in Economics

Thursday 9th December 2021

10:30 – 12:00 (Rome time, CET) | 17:30 – 19:00 (Beijing time, CST)

10:30 Welcome and introduction of the European University Institute (EUI)

Elena Ascitti, EUI External Relations Coordinator

10:35 The School of Transnational Governance and its Master Programme

Diane Stone, Professor, EUI School of Transnational Governance (STG)

11:00 Practical information on the Master in Transnational Governance

Adrian Pop, STG Admissions officer

11:10 Meet your peers at the STG

Simeng Wu and Esteban Scuzarello, Master's Students

10' Q&A session with professor, admission officer and students

11:20 The Master of Research in Economics

Russel Cooper, Professor, EUI Department of Economics

11:40 Practical information on the Master of Research in Economics

Lorenzo Ghezzi, EUI Admissions Officer (tbc)

11:45 How is studying at the EUI Department of Economics

Zheng Wang, Ph.D. Candidate

10' Q&A session with professor, admission officer and Ph.D. candidate

12:00 Conclusions

This event will be held in English.

Please note that as places are limited, to attend the session, students at University International Business and Economics (UIBE) will need to register in advance here. After registering you will receive a confirmation email which will include a Zoom meeting link. You will be able to access the event on the day via this link.

Can't make this date?

Get in touch and schedule a 10-min meeting with the STG admission officer who can answer all your questions related to the Master in Transnational Governance before the fast-track application deadline of 9 January 2022.